

The Gospels of the ASV merged

The primary purpose of this work is to bring together the four recorded accounts of our Lord's ministry chronologically, knowing there is some debate as to specifics when all four accounts are merged. The greatest danger when aligning the Gospels is for the perceived contradictions of accounts becoming more apparent to the one who only studies the letter. For those who suffer this weakness, please study this scripture before attempting this work: 2 Corinthians 3:5B-6 ... our sufficiency is from God; (6) who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

There are "Table of Content" pages at the end that give the location of chapters and verses for each page of all four books with a short description of what each page contains.

Matthew	Mark	Luke	John
			John 1:1-3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (2) The same was in the beginning with God. (3) All things were made through him; and without him was not anything made that hath been made.
	Mark 1:1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.	Luke 1:1-4 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, (2) even as they delivered them unto us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, (3) it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus; (4) that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the things wherein thou wast instructed.
		Luke 1:5-17 There was in the days of Herod, king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. (6) And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. (7) And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. (8) Now it came to pass, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, (9) according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. (10) And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the hour of incense. (11) And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of altar of incense. (12) And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. (13) But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. (14) And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. (15) For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. (16) And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. (17) And he shall go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him.

Luke 1:18-23 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. (19) And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. (20) And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. (21) And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled while he tarried in the temple. (22) And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: and he continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb. (23) And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

Luke 1:24-25 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, (25) Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

Luke 1:26-38 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, (27) to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. (28) And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee. (29) But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. (30) And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God. (31) And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. (32) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: (33) and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (34) And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? (35) And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also the holy thing which is begotten shall be called the Son of God. (36) And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that was called barren. (37) For no word from God shall be void of power. (38) And Mary said, Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

Luke 1:39-41 And Mary arose in these days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; (40) and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. (41) And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit;

Luke 1:42-45 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. (43) And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto me? (44) For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. (45) And blessed

	is she that believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord.
	Luke 1:46-56 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, (47) And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. (48) For he hath looked upon the low estate of his handmaid: For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. (49) For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; And holy is his name. (50) And his mercy is unto generations and generations On them that fear him. (51) He hath showed strength with his arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart. (52) He hath put down princes from their thrones, And hath exalted them of low degree. (53) The hungry he hath filled with good things; And the rich he hath sent empty away. (54) He hath given help to Israel his servant, That he might remember mercy (55) (As he spake unto our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed for ever. (56) And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house.
	Luke 1:57-66 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. (58) And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. (59) And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of the father. (60) And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. (61)

And they said unto her,
There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. (62) And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called. (63) And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled
all. (64) And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God.
(65) And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad
throughout all the hill country of Judaea. (66) And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:67-79 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, (68)
Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people, (69) And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us In the house of his servant David (70) (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets that have been from of old), (71) Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
(72) To show mercy towards, our fathers, And to remember his holy covenant; (73) The oath which he spake unto Abraham our father, (74) To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies Should serve him without fear, (75) In holiness and righteousness before him all our days. (76) Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High: For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways; (77) To give knowledge of salvation unto his people In the remission of their sins, (78) Because of the tender mercy of our God, Whereby the dayspring from on high shall visit us, (79) To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death; To guide our feet into the way of peace.

Matthew 1:1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
Matthew 1:2-17 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; (3) and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat Ram; (4) and Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; (5) and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; (6) and Jesse begat David the king. (12) And after the carrying away to	Luke 3:23(B)-38 being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, (24) the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, (25) the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, (26) the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, (27) the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, (28) the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, (29) the son of Jesus, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, (30) the son of Symeon, the son of Judas, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, (31) the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, (32) the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Babylon, Jechoniah begat Shealtiel; and Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; (13) and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; (14) and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; (15) and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; (16) and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. (17) So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.

John 1:4-5 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. (5) And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness apprehended it not.

Matthew 1:18-24 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the Holy Spirit. (19) And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. (20) But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. (21) And she shall bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. (22) Now all this is come to pass, that it might

be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, (23) Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, And they shall call his name Immanuel; which is, being interpreted, God with us. (24) And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife;
		Luke 2:1-6 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled. (2) This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. (3) And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. (4) And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; (5) to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. (6) And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered.
Matthew 1:25 and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and he called his name JESUS.
		Luke 2:7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.
		Luke 2:8-20 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. (9) And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

(10) And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: (11) for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. (12) And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. (13) And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, (14) Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased. (15) And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. (16) And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. (17) And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child. (18) And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds. (19) But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. (20) And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

Luke 2:21 And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Luke 2:22-24 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord (23) (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), (24) and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

Luke 2:25-35 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. (26) And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. (27) And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, (28) then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, (29) Now lettest thou thy servant depart, Lord, According to thy word, in peace; (30) For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, (31) Which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples; (32) A light for revelation to the Gentiles, And the glory of thy people Israel. (33) And his father and his mother were marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; (34) and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; (35) yea and a sword shall

		pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed.
		Luke 2:36-38 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, (37) and she had been a widow even unto fourscore and four years), who departed not from the temple, worshipping with fastings and supplications night and day. (38) And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. Matthew 2:1-12 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Wise-men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, (2) Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. (3) And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. (4) And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. (5) And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written through the prophet, (6) And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: For out of thee shall come forth a governor, Who shall be shepherd of my people Israel. (7) Then Herod privily called the Wise-men, and learned of them exactly what time the star appeared. (8) And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. (9) And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. (10) And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. (11) And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. (12) And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Matthew 2:13-18 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. (14) And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; (15) and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call my son. (16) Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the Wise-men. (17) Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, (18) A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

Matthew 2:19-21 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, (20) Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. (21) And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

Matthew 2:22-23 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, (23) and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

Luke 2:39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

Luke 2:40 And the child grew, and waxed strong, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Luke 2:41-50 And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. (42) And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; (43) and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem: and his parents knew it not; (44) but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: (45) and when they found

		him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. (46) And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions: (47) and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. (48) And when they saw him, they were astonished; and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. (49) And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be in my Father's house? (50) And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.
		Luke 2:51-52 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. (52) And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.
		Luke 3:1-2 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, (2) in the highpriesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
			John 1:6-18 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. (7) The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him. (8) He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the

			light. (9) There was the true light, even the light which lighteth every man, coming into the world. (10) He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. (11) He came unto his own, and they that were his own received him not. (12) But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on his name: (13) who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. (14) And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth. (15) John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was before me. (16) For of his fulness we all received, and grace for grace. (17) For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (18) No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.
Matthew 3:1-6 And in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, saying, (2) Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matthew 3:7-10 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (8) Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of repentance: (9) and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. (8) Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. (9) And even now the axe also lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
		Luke 3:10-14 And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? (11) And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. (12) And there came also publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Teacher, what must we do? (13) And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. (14) And soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort from no man by violence, neither accuse any one wrongfully; and be content with your wages.
Matthew 3:11-12 I indeed baptize you in water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire: (12) whose fan is in his hand,	Mark 1:7-8 And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. (18) With many other exhortations therefore preached he good tidings unto the people;	saying, I baptize in water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, (27) even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose.

(31) And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing in water.
Matthew 3:14-15 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? (15) But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him.
Matthew 3:16-17 And Jesus when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; (17) and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.	Mark 1:9(B)-11 and was baptized of John in the Jordan. Matthew 4:2-4 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. (3) And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread. (4) And Jesus answered unto him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone.
Matthew 4:5-7 Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the pinnacle of the temple, (6) and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and, On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone. Luke 4:9-12 And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: (10) for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee: (11) and, On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone. Matthew 4:8-10 Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; (9) and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. John 1:35-42 Again on the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples; (36) and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God! (37) And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. (38) And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), where abideth thou? (39) He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour. (40) One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. (41) He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being interpreted, Christ). (42) He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of John: thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, Peter).

John 1:43-51 On the morrow he was minded to go forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me. (44) Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. (45) Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. (46) And Nathanael said unto him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. (47) Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! (48) Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. (49) Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art King of Israel. (50) Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. (51) And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

John 2:1-11 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: (2) and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples, to the marriage. (3) And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. (4) And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. (5) His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. (6) Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. (7) Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. (8) And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ruler of the feast. And they bare it. (9) And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants that had drawn the water knew), the

		ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, (10) and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. (11) This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
		John 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and there they abode not many days.
		John 2:13-22 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. (14) And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: (15) and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; (16) and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. (17) His disciples remembered that it was written, Zeal for thy house shall eat me up. (18) The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? (19) Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. (20) The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? (21) But he spake of the temple of his body. (22) When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they

		believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
		John 2:23-25 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. (24) But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, (25) and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.
		John 3:1-21 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: (2) the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. (3) Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. (4) Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? (5) Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God! (6) That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. (7) Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew. (8) The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. (9) Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? (10) Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of

Israel, and understandest not these things?
(11) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that which we know, and bear witness of that which we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. (12) If I told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? (13) And no one hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, who is in heaven. (14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up; (15) that whosoever believeth may in him have eternal life. (16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. (17) For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. (18) He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. (19) And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. (20) For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be reproved. (21) But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, that they have been wrought in God.

John 3:22-28 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. (23) And John also was baptizing in Enon near to

		Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. (24) For John was not yet cast into prison. (25) There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about purifying. (26) And they came unto John, and said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. (27) John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. (28) Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him.

		John 3:30-36 He must increase, but I must decrease. (31) He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaketh: he that cometh from heaven is above all. (32) What he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness; and no man receiveth his witness. (33) He that hath received his witness hath set his seal to this, that God is true. (34) For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for he giveth not the Spirit by measure. (35) The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. (36) He that believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but he that obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him. John 4:1-2 When therefore

			the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John (2) (although Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), Luke 3:19-20 but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, (20) added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.
Matthew 4:12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee;	Mark 1:14 Now after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God,		John 4:3 he left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.
			John 4:4-42 And he must needs pass through Samaria. (5) so he cometh to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph: (6) and Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour. (7) There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. (8) For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food. (9) The Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) (10) Jesus answered and said unto unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. (11) The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence then hast thou that living water? (12) Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle?

(13) Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: (14) but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto eternal life. (15) The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw. (16) Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. (17) The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: (18) for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. (19) The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. (20) Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. (21) Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. (22) Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. (23) But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. (24) God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth. (25) The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. (26) Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. (27) And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? (28) So the woman left her waterpot, and went away into the city, and saith to the people, (29) Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did: can this be the Christ? (30) They went out of the city, and were coming to him. (31) In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, Rabbi, eat. (32) But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. (33) The disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him aught to eat? (34) Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to accomplish his work. (35) say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest. (36) He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. (37) For herein is the saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. (38) I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored: others have labored, and ye are entered into their labor. (39) And from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me all things that ever I did. (40) So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. (41) And many more believed because of his word; (42) and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world.

Matthew 4:17 From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.	Mark 1:15 and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.
		Luke 4:14-15 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region round about. (15) And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.
			John 4:43-54 And after the two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. (44) For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honor in his own country. (45) So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast. (46) He came therefore again unto Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. (47) When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. (48) Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. (49) The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. (50) Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. (51) And as he was now

			going down, his servants met him, saying, that his son lived. (52) So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. (53) So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. (54) This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judaea into Galilee.
		Luke 4:16-30 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. (17) And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the book, and found the place where it was written, (18) The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, Because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor: He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives, And recovering of sight to the blind, To set at liberty them that are bruised, (19) To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. (20) And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. (21) And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. (22) And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son? (23) And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done at

		Capernaum, do also here in thine own country. (24) And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is acceptable in his own country. (25) But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; (26) and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. (27) And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian. (28) And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; (29) and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong. (30) But he passing through the midst of them went his way. Matthew 4:13-16 and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: (14) that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, (15) The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, Toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, (16) The people that sat in darkness Saw a great light, And to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, To them did light spring up.

fishers.		Luke 5:1-10(A) Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; (2) and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. (3) And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. (4) And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. (5) And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. (6) And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; (7) and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. (8) But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. (9) For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; (10A) and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Matthew 9:9-13 And as Jesus passed by from thence, he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. (10) And it came to pass, as he sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. (11) And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Teacher with the publicans and sinners? (12) But when he heard it, he said, They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick. (13) But go ye and learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

Mark 2:13-17 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. (14) And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. (15) And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. (30) And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? Matthew 9:14-15 Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? (15) And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast.	Mark 2:18-20 And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? (19) And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. (20) But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day.	Luke 5:33-35 And they said unto him, The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink. (34) And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? (35) But the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then will they fast in those days.
Matthew 9:16-17 And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse rent is made. (17) Neither do men put new wine into old wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.	Mark 2:21-22 No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. (22) And no man putteth new wine into old wineskins; else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.	Luke 5:36-39 And he spake also a parable unto them: No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. (37) And no man putteth new wine into old wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. (38) But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins. (39) And no man having drunk old wine desireth new; for he saith, The old is good.
			John 5:1-16 After these things there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. (2) Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches. (3) In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water, (4) for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the waters stepped in was made whole, with whatsoever disease he was holden. (5) And a certain man was there, who had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. (6) When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? (7) The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. (8) Jesus saith unto him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. (9) And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked. Now it was the sabbath on that day. (10) So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. (11) But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. (12) They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? (13) But he that was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. (14) Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing befall thee. (15) The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. (16) And for this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath.

John 5:17-47 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. (18) For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

(19) Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. (20) For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and greater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. (21) For as the Father raiseth the dead and giveth them life, even so the Son also giveth life to whom he will. (22) For neither doth the Father judge any man, but he hath given all judgment unto the Son; (23) that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. (24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life. (25) Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. (26) For as the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: (27) and he gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. (28) Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, (29) and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment. (30) I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is righteous; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. (31) If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. (32) It is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. (33) Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness unto the truth. (34) But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these things, that ye may be saved. (35) He was the lamp that burneth and shineth; and ye were willing to rejoice for a season in his light. (36) But the witness which I have is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. (37) And the Father that sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. (38) And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he sent, him ye believe not. (39) Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of me; (40) and ye will not come to me, that ye may have life. (41) I receive not glory from men. (42) But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in yourselves. (43) I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. (44) How can ye believe, who receive glory one of another, and the glory that cometh

			from the only God ye seek not? (45) Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, on whom ye have set your hope. (46) For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote of me. (47) But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? Matthew 12:1-8 At that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the grainfields; and his disciples were hungry and began to pluck ears and to eat. (3) But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him; (4) how he entered into the house of God, and ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for the priests? (5) Or have ye not read in the law, that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? (6) But I say unto you, that one greater than the temple is here. (25) And he said unto them, Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they that were with him? (26) How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? (12) How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath day. (13) Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the other. (14) But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. (5) And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and his hand was restored. knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. (9) And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy it? (10) And he looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored. (11) But they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

Matthew 12:15-16 And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and he healed them all, (16) and charged them that they should not make him known:

Mark 3:7-12 And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed; and from Judaea, (8) and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and beyond the Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came unto him. (9) And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng him: (10) for he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had plagues pressed upon him that they might touch him. (11) And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. (12) And he charged them much that they should not make him known.

Matthew 12:17-21 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, (18) Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgment to the

(19) And all the multitude sought to touch him; for power came forth from him, and healed them all.

when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: (2) and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying, (3) Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (4) Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. (5) Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. (6) Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. (7) Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. (8) Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. (9) Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God. (10) Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (11) Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. (12) Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

are ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. (21) Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. (22) Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. (23) Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the same manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

Luke 6:24-28 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. (25) Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. (26) Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the false prophets. (27) But I say unto you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, (28) bless them that curse you, pray for them that despitefully use you.

Matthew 5:13-39 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted?

it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. (14) Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. (15) Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. (16) Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. (17) Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. (18)
For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. (19) Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (20)
For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. (21) Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: (22) but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire. (23) If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, (24) leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. (25) Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. (26) Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing. (27) Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: (28) but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. (29) And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast into hell. (30) And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into hell. (31) It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: (32) but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery. (33) Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: (34) but I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God; (35) nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. (36) Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. (37) But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of the evil one. (38) Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: (39) but I say unto you, resist not him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

Matthew 5:40-42 And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. (41) And whosoever shall compel thee to go one mile, go with him two. (42) Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Luke 6:29-30 To him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloak withhold not thy coat also. (30) Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

Luke 6:38-39 give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again. (39) And he spake also a parable unto them, Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit?

Matthew 5:43-45 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy: (44) but I say unto you, love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; (45) that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the Most High: for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

Matthew 5:46 For if ye love

Luke 6:32 And if ye love

them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?		them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them.
Matthew 5:47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same?		Luke 6:33-34 And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even sinners do the same. (34) And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive again as much.
		Luke 6:36 Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful.
Matthew 5:48 Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.
		Luke 6:40 The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his teacher. Matthew 6:1-34 Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven. (2) When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. (3) But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: (4) that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee. (5) And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. (6) But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee. (7) And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. (8) Be not therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. (9) After this manner therefore pray ye. Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. (10) Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. (11) Give us this day our daily bread. (12) And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. (13) And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. (14) For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. (15) But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (16) Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. (17) But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; (18) that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father who is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall recompense thee. (19) Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal: (20) but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: (21) for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. (22)

The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. (23) But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! (24) No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (25) Therefore I say unto you, be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? (26) Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? (27) And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life? (28) And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: (29) yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. (30) But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? (31) Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (32) For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. (33) But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (34) Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Matthew 7:1-2 Judge not, that ye be not judged. (2) For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you.

Matthew 7:3-5 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (4) Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? (5) Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Matthew 7:6-11 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you. (7) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: (8) for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. (9) Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; (10) or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent? (11) If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

Luke 6:37 And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: release, and ye shall be released:

Luke 6:41-42 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (42) Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

Matthew 7:12 All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.		Luke 6:31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
Matthew 7:13-15 Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby. (14) For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few are they that find it. (15) Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.
Matthew 7:16-18 By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? (17) Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. (18) A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.		Luke 6:43 For there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit.
Matthew 7:19-20 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. (20) Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
		Luke 6:44-46 For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. (45) The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. (46) And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Matthew 7:21-23 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but

he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. (22) Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many mighty works? (23) And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
Matthew 7:24-27 Every one therefore that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, who built his house upon the rock: (25) and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. (26) And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: (27) and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.		Luke 6:47-49 Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like: (48) he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: because it had been well builded. (49) But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

(9) For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. (10) And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. (11) And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: (12) but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. (13) And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the servant was healed in that hour.

servant. (4) And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him; (5) for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our synagogue. (6) And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: (7) wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say the word, and my servant shall be healed. (8) For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. (9) And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. (10) And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole.

Luke 7:11-17 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. (12) Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. (13) And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. (14) And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. (15) And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. (16) And fear took hold on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. (21) In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. Luke 7:29-30 And all the people when they heard, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. (30) But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, being not baptized of him.

Matthew 11:16-19 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, who call unto their fellows (17) and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not mourn. (18) For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a demon. (19) The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom is justified by her works.

Luke 7:31-35 Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? (32) They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; who say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. (33) For John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. Matthew 11:20-24 Then began he to upbraid the

cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not. (21) Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. (22) But I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. (23) And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt go down unto Hades: for if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in thee, it would have remained until this day. 		Luke 7:36-50 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. (39) Now when the Pharisee that had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, that she is a sinner. (40) And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee.

And he saith, Teacher, say on. (41) A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred shillings, and the other fifty. (42) When they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most? (43) Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. (44) And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. (45) Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet. (46) My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. (47) Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. (48) And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. (49) And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? Luke 8:1-3 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve, (2) and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, (3) and

Matthew 12:22-28 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a demon, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw. (23) And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Can this be the son of David? (24) But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons. (25) And knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: (26) and if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? (27) And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. (28) But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you.	Mark 3:22-26 And the scribes that came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons. (23) And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? (24) And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. (25) And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. (26) And if Satan hath rise up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.	Luke 11:14-20 And he was casting out a demon that was dumb. And it came to pass, when the demon was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. (15) But some of them said, By Beelzebub the prince of the demons casteth he out demons. (16) And others, trying him , sought of him a sign from heaven. (17) But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. (18) And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons by Beelzebub. (19) And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

John 6:22-71 On the morrow the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone (23) (howbeit there came boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): (24) when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. (25) And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? (26) Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. (27) Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed. (28) They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God? (29) Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. (30) They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? (31) Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. (32) Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. (33) For the bread of God is that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. (34) They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. (35) Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. (36) But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. (37) All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. (38) For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. (39) And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. (40) For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. (41) The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down out of heaven. (42) And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of heaven? (43) Jesus answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. (44) No man can come to me, except the Father that sent me draw him: and I will raise him up in the last day. (45) It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath learned, cometh unto me. (46) Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he that is from God, he hath seen the Father.

(47) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth hath eternal life. (48) I am the bread of life. (49) Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

(50) This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. (51) I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world. (52) The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? (53) Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves. (54) He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life: and I will raise him up at the last day. (55) For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. (56) He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me, and I in him. (57) As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me. (58)

This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread shall live for ever.

(59) These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. (60) Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it? (61) But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? (62)

			What then if ye should behold the Son of man ascending where he was before? (63) It is the spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. (64) But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should betray him. (65) And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father. (66) Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. (67) Jesus said therefore unto the twelve, Would ye also go away? (68) Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. (69) And we have believed and know that thou art the Holy One of God. (70) Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil? (71) Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

Matthew 17:9-13 And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead. (10) And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come? (11) And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things: (12) but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them. (13) Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

Mark 9:9-13 And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. (10) And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. (11) And they asked him, saying, How is it that the scribes say that Elijah must first come? (12) And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be set at nought? (13) But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him.

(16) And he asked them, What question ye with them? (17) And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; (18) and wheresoever it taketh him, it dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. (19) And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. (20) And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. (21) And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. (22) And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. (23) And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believeth. (24) Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. (25) And when Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. (26) And having cried out, and torn him much, he came out: and the boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: (39) and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. (40) And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. (41) And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. (42) And as he was yet a coming, the demon dashed him down, and tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. (43) And they were all astonished at the majesty of God. little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea. (7) Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh! (8) And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. (9) And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire.

of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it were better for him if a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. (43) And if thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having thy two hands to go into hell, into the unquenchable fire; (44) where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. (45) And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be cast into hell; (46) where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. (47) And if thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell; (48) where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

Matthew 18:10-11 See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. (11) For the Son of man came to save that which was lost.

Mark 9:49-50 For every one shall be salted with fire. (50) Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

Matthew 18:12-14 How think ye? if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? (13) And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. (14) Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

Matthew 18:15-17 And if thy brother sin against thee, go, show him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. (16) But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. (17) And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the church: and if he refuse to hear the church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican.

Matthew 18:18-20 Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (19) Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven. (20) For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Matthew 18:21-22 Then came Peter and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? (22) Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven.

Matthew 18:23-35 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would make a reckoning with his servants. (24) And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand talents. (25) But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. (26) The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. (27) And the lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. (28) But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred shillings: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. (29) So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. (30) And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. (31) So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. (32) Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: (33) shouldest not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? (34) And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due. (35) So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

John 7:1-9 And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judaea, because the Jews sought to kill him. (2) Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand. (3) His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. (4) For no man doeth anything in secret, and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. (5) For even his brethren did not believe on him. (6) Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. (7) The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil. (8) Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up unto this feast; because my time is not yet fulfilled. (9) And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

John 7:10-13 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. (11) The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? (12) And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. (13) Yet no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

John 7:14-24 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. (15) The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? (16) Jesus therefore answered them and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. (17) If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from myself. (18) He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. (19) Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill me? (20) The multitude answered, Thou hast a demon: who seeketh to kill thee? (21) Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one work, and ye all marvel because thereof. (22) Moses hath given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man. (23) If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a man every whit whole on the sabbath? (24) Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

John 7:25-31 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? (26) And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? (27) Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is. (28) Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. (29) I know him; because I am from him, and he sent me. (30) They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his hour was not yet come. (31) But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will

		he do more signs than those which this man hath done?
		John 7:32-44 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him. (33) Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto him that sent me. (34) Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come. (35) The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? (36) What is this word that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come? (37) Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. (38) He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, from within him shall flow rivers of living water. (39) But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified. (40) Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth the prophet. (41) Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, doth the Christ come out of Galilee? (42) Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? (43) So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. (44) And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. John 7:45-53 The officers

therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? (46) The officers answered, Never man so spake. (47) The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye also led astray? (48) Hath any of the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? (49) But this multitude that knoweth not the law are accursed. (50) Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), (51) Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth? (52) They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. (53) [And they went every man unto his own house:

John 8:1 but Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

John 8:2-11 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. (3) And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in the midst, (4) they say unto him, Teacher, this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. (5) Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her? (6) And this they said, trying him, that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. (7) But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. (8) And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. (9) And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. (10) And Jesus lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? (11) And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth sin no more.]

John 8:12-27 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. (13) The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. (14) Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. (15) Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. (16) Yea and if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. (17) Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is true. (18) I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. (19) They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. (20) These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come. (21) He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. (22) The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? (23) And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. (24) I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. (25) They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. (26) I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I unto the world. (27) They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father.

John 8:28-32 Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. (29) And he that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are pleasing to him. (30) As he spake these things, many believed on him. (31) Jesus therefore said to those Jews that had believed him, If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples; (32) and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

John 8:33-41 They answered unto him, We are Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? (34) Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin. (35) And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the son abideth for ever. (36) If therefore the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (37) I know that ye are Abraham's seed: yet ye seek to kill me, because my word hath not free course in you. (38) I speak the things which I have seen with my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from your father. (39) They answered and said unto him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. (40) But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham. (41) Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

John 8:42-47 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me. (43) Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word. (44) Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof. (45) But because I say the truth, ye believe me not. (46) Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me? (47) He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of

			God. John 8:48-59 The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon? (49) Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me. (50) But I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. (51) Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death. (52) The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death. (53) Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom makest thou thyself? (54) Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; (55) and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. (56) Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. (57) The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? 		Luke 10:1-20 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. (2) And he said unto them, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest. (3) Go your ways; behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. (4) Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes; and salute no man on the way. (5) And into whatsoever house ye shall enter, first say, Peace be to this house. (6) And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon him: but if not, it shall turn to you again. (7) And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. (8) And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: (9) and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. (10) But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say, (11) Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we wipe off against you: nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh. (12) I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. (13) Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. (14) But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you. (15) And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto Hades. (16) He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me;

		and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me. (17) And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject unto us in thy name. (18) And he said unto them, I beheld Satan fallen as lightning from heaven. (19) Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall in any wise hurt you. (20) Nevertheless in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.
Matthew 11:25-27 At that season Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: (26) yea, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. (27) All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him.		Luke 10:21-22 In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. (22) All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him.
Matthew 11:28-30 Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. (29) Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. (30) For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Luke 10:23-42 And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: (24) for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and

saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. (25)

And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? (26)

And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? (27)

And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. (28)

And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. (29) But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto

Jesus, And who is my neighbor? (30) Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. (31) And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. (32)

And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. (33) But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, (34) and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. (35)

And on the morrow he took out two shillings, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. (36)

Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbor unto him that fell among the robbers? (37) And he said, He that showed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. (38) Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. (39) And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. (40) But Martha was cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. (41) But the Lord answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things: (42) but one thing is needful: for Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

John 9:1-41 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. (2) And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he should be born blind? (3) Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. (4) We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. (5) When I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (6) When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed his eyes with the clay, (7) and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. (8) The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? (9) Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. (10) They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? (11) He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. (12) And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not. (13) They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. (14) Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. (15) Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. (16) Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was division among them. (17) They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. (18) The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, (19) and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see? (20) His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: (21) but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. (22) These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. (23) Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. (24) So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. (25) He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. (26) They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes? (27) He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear; wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? (28) And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. (29) We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not whence he is. (30) The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. (31) We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. (32) Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. (33) If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. (34) They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. (35) Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? (36) He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? (37) Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh with thee. (38) And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. (39) And Jesus said, For judgment came I into this world, that they that see not may see; and that they that see may become blind. (40) Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind? (41) Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

John 10:1-42 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. (2) But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. (3) To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. (4) When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. (5) And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. (6) This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. (7) Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. (8) All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. (9) I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. (10) The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. (11) I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep. (12) He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: (13) he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. (14) I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, (15) even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. (16) And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and they shall become one flock, one shepherd. (17) Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. (18) No one taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father. (19) There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. (20) And many of them said, He hath a demon, and is mad; why hear ye him? (21) Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? (22) And it was the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: (23) it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's porch. (24) The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. (25) Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. (26) But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. (27) My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: (28) and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. (29) My Father, who hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. (30) I and the Father are one. (31) The Jews took up stones again to stone him. (32) Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? (33) The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. (34) Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, ye are gods? (35) If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), (36) say ye of him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? (37) If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. (38) But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.

(39) They sought again to take him: and he went forth out of their hand. (40) And he went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. (41) And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. (42) And many believed on him there.

John 11:1-54 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha. (2) And it was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. (3) The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. (4) But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. (5) Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. (6) When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was. (7) Then after this he saith to the disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. (8) The disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? (9) Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. (10) But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. (11) These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.*

(12) The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will recover. (13) Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. (14) Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. (15) And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. (16) Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. (17) So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. (18) Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; (19) and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. (20) Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house. (21) Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. (22) And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. (23) Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. (24) Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. (25) Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; (26) and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this? (27) She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. (28) And when she had said this, she went away, and called

Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher is here, and calleth thee. (29) And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (30) (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.) (31) The Jews then who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to weep there. (32) Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. (33) When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, (34) and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. (35) Jesus wept. (36) The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him! (37) But some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? (38) Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. (39) Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time the body decayeth; for he hath been dead four days. (40) Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God? (41) So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me. (42) And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude that standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst send me.

(43) And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

(44) He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. (45) Many therefore of the Jews, who came to Mary and beheld that which he did, believed on him. (46) But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. (47) The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many signs.

(48) If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation. (49) But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, (50) nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. (51)

Now this he said not of himself: but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; (52) and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. (53) So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

(54) Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there he tarried with the disciples.

Luke 11:1-13 And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. (2) And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Father, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. (3) Give us day by day our daily bread. (4) And forgive us our sins; for we ourselves also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And bring us not into temptation. (5) And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; (6) for a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him; (7) and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee? (8) I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many as he needeth. (9) And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (10) For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. (11) And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask a loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and he for a fish give him a serpent? (12) Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion? (13) If ye then, being evil, know how to

		give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?
		Luke 11:27-28 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. (28) But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
		Luke 11:29-32 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. (30) For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. (31) The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. (32) The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here.
		Luke 11:33-36 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light. (34) The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. (35) Look

		therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness. (36) If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.
		Luke 11:37-44 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. (38) And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first bathed himself before dinner. (39) And the Lord said unto him, Now ye the Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. (40) Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside make the inside also? (41) But give for alms those things which are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you. (42) But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. (43) Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. (44) Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.
		Luke 11:45-52 And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in saying this thou reproachest us also. (46) And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also! for ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. (47) Woe unto

you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. (48) So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. (49) Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; (50) that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; (51) from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. (52) Woe unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

Luke 11:53-54 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things; (54) laying wait for him, to catch something out of his mouth.

Luke 12:1-12 In the mean time, when the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trod one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. (2) But there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. (3) Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. (4) And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. (5) But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, who after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. (6) Are not five sparrows sold for two pence? and not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God. (7) But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not: ye are of more value than many sparrows. (8) And I say unto you, Every one who shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: (9) but he that denieth me in the presence of men shall be denied in the presence of the angels of God. (10) And every one who shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. (11) And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: (12) for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

Luke 12:13-21 And one out of the multitude said unto him, Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. (14) But he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? (15) And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. (16)

And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: (17) and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? (18)
And he said, This will I do:
I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my grain and my goods. (19)
And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. (20) But God said unto him, Thou foolish one, this night is thy soul required of thee;
and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be? (21) So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

Luke 12:22-34 And he said
unto his disciples,
Therefore I say unto you,
Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. (23) For the life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. (24) Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the birds!
(25) And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit unto the measure of his life? (26) If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? (27) Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. (28) But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, O ye of little faith? (29) And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. (30) For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. (31) Yet seek ye his kingdom, and these things shall be added unto you. (32) Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. (33) Sell that which ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. (34) For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Luke 12:35-48 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; (36) and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may straightway open unto him. (37) Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve them. (38) And if he shall come in the second watch, and if in the third, and find them so, blessed are those servants. (39) But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be broken through. (40)

Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh. (41) And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even unto all? (42) And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? (43) Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. (44) Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath. (45) But if that servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; (46) the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful. (47) And that servant, who knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; (48) but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more.

Luke 12:49-53 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what do I desire, if it is already kindled? (50) But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! (51) Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: (52) for there shall be from henceforth

		five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. (53) They shall be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.
		Luke 12:54-59 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. (55) And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. (56) Ye hypocrites, ye know how to interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to interpret this time? (57) And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? (58) For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he drag thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the officer, and the officer shall cast thee into prison. (59) I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last mite.
		Luke 13:1-5 Now there were some present at that very season who told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. (2) And he answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they have suffered these things? (3) I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. (4) Or those eighteen,

		upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? (5) I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
		Luke 13:6-9 And he spake this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. (7) And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? (8) And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: (9) and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down. Luke 13:10-17 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. (11) And behold, a woman that had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. (12) And when Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. (13) And he laid his hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. (14) And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. (15) But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from

the stall, and lead him away to watering? (16) And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? (17) And as he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Luke 13:22-30 And he went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and journeying on unto Jerusalem. (23) And one said unto him, Lord, are they few that are saved? And he said unto them, (24) Strive to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall not be able. (25) When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, I know you not whence ye are; (26) then shall ye begin to say, We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; (27) and he shall say, I tell you, I know not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. (28) There shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves cast forth without. (29) And they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. (30) And behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are

	first who shall be last. Luke 13:31-33 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go hence: for Herod would fain kill thee. (32) And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I am perfected. (33) Nevertheless I must go on my way to-day and to-morrow and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.
	Luke 13:34-35 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would not! (35) Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
	Luke 14:1-6 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. (2) And behold, there was before him a certain man that had the dropsy. (3) And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? (4) But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. (5) And he said unto them, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? (6) And they could not answer again unto these things.

Luke 14:7-11 And he spake a parable unto those that were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, (8) When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him, (9) and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take the lowest place. (10) But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee. (11) For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Luke 14:12-15 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. (13) But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: (14) and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just. (15) And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

Luke 14:16-24 But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: (17) and he sent forth his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. (18) And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee have me excused. (19) And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. (20) And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. (21) And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. (22) And the servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. (23) And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. (24) For I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper.

Luke 14:25-35 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, (26) If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. (27) Whosoever doth not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. (28) For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? (29) Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, (30) saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. (31) Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? (32) Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. (33) So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. (34) Salt therefore is good: but if even the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? (35) It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Luke 15:1-10 Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. (2) And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. (3) And he spake unto them this parable, saying, (4) What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? (5) And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. (6) And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. (7) I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance. (8) Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? (9) And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. (10) Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

Luke 15:11-32 And he said, A certain man had two sons: (12) and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. (13) And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. (14) And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. (15) And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. (16) And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. (17) But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! (18) I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: (19) I am no more worthy to be called your son: make me as one of thy hired servants. (20) And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. (21) And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son. (22) But the father said to his servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: (23) and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry: (24) for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. (25) Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. (26) And he called to him one of the servants, and inquired what these things might be. (27) And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. (28) But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and entreated him. (29) But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: (30) but when this thy son came, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. (31) And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. (32) But it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

Luke 16:1-14 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. (2) And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. (3) And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. (4) I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. (5) And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? (6) And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. (7) Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy bond, and write fourscore. (8) And his lord commended the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light. (9) And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into the eternal

	tabernacles. (10) He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. (11) If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? (12) And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? (13) No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (14) And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; and they scoffed at him.
	Luke 16:15-17 And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. (16) The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. (17) But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.
	Luke 16:18 Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery. Luke 16:19-31 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, faring sumptuously every day: (20) and a certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, (21) and desiring to

be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. (22) And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. (23) And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. (24) And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame. (25) But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. (26) And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they that would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. (27) And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; (28) for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. (29) But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. (30) And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. (31) And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

Luke 17:1-4 And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that

		occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! (2) It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. (3) Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. (4) And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.
		Luke 17:5-10 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. (6) And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would obey you. (7) But who is there of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat; (8) and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? (9) Doth he thank the servant because he did the things that were commanded? (10) Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do. Luke 17:11-19 And it came to pass, as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. (12) And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off: (13) and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. (14) And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. (15) And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; (16) and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. (17) And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? (18) Were there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger? (19) And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

Luke 17:20-21 And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: (21) neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is within you.

Luke 17:22-33 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. (23) And they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: (24) for as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be in his day. (25) But first must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. (26) And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. (27) They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. (28) Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; (29) but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: (30) after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man is revealed. (31) In that day, he that shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not return back. (32) Remember Lot's wife. (33) Whosoever shall seek to gain his life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

Luke 17:34-37 I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. (35) There shall be two women grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. (36) There shall be two men in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. (37) And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where the body is, thither will the eagles also be gathered together.

Luke 18:1-8 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought always to pray, and not to faint; (2) saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, and regarded not

		man: (3) and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. (4) And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; (5) yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she wear me out by her continual coming. (6) And the Lord said, Hear what the unrighteous judge saith. (7) And shall not God avenge his elect, that cry to him day and night, and yet he is longsuffering over them? (8) I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?
		Luke 18:9-14 And he spake also this parable unto certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set all others at nought: (10) Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. (11) The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. (12) I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all that I get. (13) But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God, be thou merciful to me a sinner. (14) I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
Matthew 19:1-12 And it came to pass when Jesus	Mark 10:1-9 And he arose from thence and cometh

had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judaea beyond the Jordan; (2) and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there. (3) And there came unto him Pharisees, trying him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? (4) And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, (5) and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh? (6) So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. (7) They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away? (8) He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. (9) And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. (10) The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. (3) And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; (4) and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. (5) Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. (6) And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? (7) They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. (8) And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. (9) And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a shilling. (10) And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a shilling. (11) And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, (12) saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat. (13) But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a shilling? Matthew 21:15-16 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation, (16) and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou has perfected praise?

Matthew 21:17 And he left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.	Mark 11:11(B) it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

Matthew 21:18-19 Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he hungered. Matthew 21:20-22 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? (35) And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. (36) Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. (37) But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. (38) But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance. (39) And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. (40) When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do unto those husbandmen? (41) They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons. (42) Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner; This was from the Lord, And it is marvelous in our eyes? Matthew 22:1-14 And Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, (2) The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, (3) and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. (4) Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. (5) But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise; (6) and the rest laid hold on his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. (7) But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. (8) Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy. (9) Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. (10) And those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. (11) But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man who had not on a wedding-garment: (12) and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. (13) Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand

Matthew 22:15-22 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his talk. (17) Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? (18) But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why make ye trial of me, ye hypocrites? (19) Show me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a denarius. (20) And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? (21) They say unto him, Caesar's. Matthew 22:23-33 On that day there came to him Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, (24) saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. (28) In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. (29) But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. (30) For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels in heaven. (31) But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, (32) I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? of all the woman also died. (23) In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. (24) Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? (25) For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. (26) But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? (27) He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

Afterward the woman also died. (33) In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. (34) And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage: (35) but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: (36) for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. Matthew 22:34-40 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. (35) And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, trying him: (36) Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? (37) And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. (38) This is the great and first commandment. (39) And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (40) On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

Mark 12:28-34(A) And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? (29) Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God, the Lord is one: (30) and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. (31) The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. Matthew 23:8-12 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren. (9) And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your Father, even he who is in heaven. Matthew 23:13-36 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter. (14) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, even while for a pretence ye make long prayers: therefore ye shall receive greater condemnation. (15) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of hell than yourselves. (16) Woe unto you, ye blind guides, that say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor. (17) Ye fools and blind: for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that hath sanctified the gold? (18) And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is a debtor. (19) Ye blind: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth

the gift? (20) He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. (21) And he that sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. (22) And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon. (23) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, justice, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone. (24) Ye blind guides, that strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel! (25) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from extortion and excess. (26) Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also. (27) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. (28) Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. (29) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, (30) and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. (31) Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. (32) Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. (33) Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgment of hell? (34) Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city: (35) that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar. (36) Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

Matthew 23:37-39 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Mark 12:41-44 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. (7) And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? Matthew 25:1-13 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. (2) And five of them were foolish, and five were wise. (3) For the foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them: (4) but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. (5) Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. (6) But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. (7) Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. (8) And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out. (9) But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to

Matthew 25:14-30 For it is as when a man, going into another country, called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. (15) And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability; and he went on his journey. (16) Straightway he that received the five talents went and traded with them, and made other five talents. (17) In like manner he also that received the two gained other two. (18) But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. (19) Now after a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and maketh a reckoning with them. (20) And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five talents. (21) His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. (22) And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents.

(23) His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. (24) And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter; (25) and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own. (26) But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter; (27) thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. (28) Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents. (29) For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. Matthew 25:31-46 But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: (32) and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats; (33) and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. (37) Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? (38) And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? (39) And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? (40) And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me. (41) Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels: (42) for I was hungry, and ye did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; (43) I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. (44) Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? (45) Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me. (46) And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

John 12:20-33 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast: (21) these therefore came to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. (22) Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus. (23) And Jesus answereth them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. (24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit. (25) He that loveth his life loseth it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. (26) If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father honor. (27) Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. (28) Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. (29) The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath spoken to him. (30) Jesus answered and said, This voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. (31) Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. (32) And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto myself. (33) But this he said, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

John 12:34-43 The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? (35) Jesus therefore said unto them, Yet a little while is the light among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. (36) While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light. These things spake Jesus, and he departed and hid himself from them. (37) But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed not on him: (38) that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? (39) For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again, (40) He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart; Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, And should turn, And I should heal them. (41) These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory; and he spake of him. (42) Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: (43) for they loved the glory that is

			John 12:44-50 And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. (45) And he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me. (46) I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. (47) And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. (48) He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in the last day. (49) For I spake not from myself; but the Father that sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. (50) And I know that his commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.
Matthew 26:14-16 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, (15) and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you? (11) And ye shall say unto the master of the house, The Teacher saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? (12) And he will show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. (13) And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

			John 13:2-20 And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, (3) Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all the things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, (4) riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and girded himself. (5) Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. (6) So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? (7) Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. (8) Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never

(10) Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. (11) For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. (12) So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? (13) Ye call me, Teacher, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. (14) If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. (15) For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. (16) Verily, verily, I say unto you, a servant is not greater than his lord; neither one that is sent greater than he that sent him. (17) If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them. (18) I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled: He that eateth my bread lifted up his heel against me. (19) From henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

John 13:23-30 There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. (24) Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. (25) He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? (26) Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. (27) And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. (28) Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. (29) For some thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. (30) He then having received the sop went out straightway: and it was night.

John 13:31-35 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him; (32) and God shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. (33) Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said

Matthew 26:26-29 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. (25) And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. (26) But ye shall not be so: but he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. (27) For which is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am in

(28) But ye are they that have continued with me in my temptations; (29) and I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, (30) that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; and ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(37) For I say unto you, that this which is written must be fulfilled in me, And he was reckoned with transgressors: for that which concerneth me hath fulfilment. 			John 14:1-31 Let not your heart be troubled: believe in God, believe also in me. (2) In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. (3) And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. (4) And whither I go, ye know the way. (5) Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the way? (6) Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me. (9) Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Show us the Father? (10) Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father abiding in me doeth his works. (11) Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. (12) Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto the Father. (13) And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. (14) If ye shall ask anything in my name, that will I do. (15) If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments. (16) And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, (17) even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. (18) I will not leave you desolate: I come unto you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, ye shall live also. (20) In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. (21) He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him. (22) Judas (not Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? (23) Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. (24) He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. (25) These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you. (26) But the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. (27) Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. (28) Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than I. (29) And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe. (30) I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh: and he hath nothing in me; (31) but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

Matthew 26:30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

Mark 14:26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

Luke 22:39 And he came out, and went, as his custom was, unto the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him.

Matthew 26:33-35 But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be offended in thee, I will never be offended. (34) Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. (35) Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.	Mark 14:29-31 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. (31) But he spake exceedingly vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all.	Luke 22:31-34 Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat: (32) but I made supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not; and do thou, when once thou hast turned again, establish thy brethren. (33) And he said unto him, Lord, with thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death. (34) And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.	John 13:36-38 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow now; but thou shalt follow afterwards. (37) Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down my life for thee. (38) Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.
			John 15:1-8 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. (2) Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit. (3) Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you. (4) Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. (5) I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. (6) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (7) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you. (8) Herein is my

		Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples.
		John 15:9-17 Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. (10) If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. (11) These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full. (12) This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. (13) Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. (14) Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you. (15) No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father, I have made known unto you. (16) Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. (17) These things I command you, that ye may love one another.
		John 15:18-25 If the world hateth you, ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. (19) If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. (20) Remember the word that I said unto you, A servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. (21) But

		all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. (22) If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. (23) He that hateth me hateth my Father also. (24) If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. (25) But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.
		John 15:26-27 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me: (27) and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. John 16:1-15 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be caused to stumble. (2) They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God. (3) And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me. (4) But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you. (5) But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? (6) But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. (7) Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go

away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you. (8) And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: (9) of sin, because they believe not on me; (10) of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; (11) of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. (12) I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. (13) Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. (14) He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. (15) All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you.

John 16:16-33 A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me. (17) Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? (18) They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. (19) Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me?

(20) Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

(21) A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. (22) And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. (23) And in that day ye shall ask me no question. Verily, verily, I say unto you, if ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name.

(24) Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be made full.

(25) These things have I spoken unto you in dark sayings: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in dark sayings, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. (26) In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; (27) for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father.

(28) I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father. (29) His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no dark saying. (30) Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. (31) Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? (32) Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that

		ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. (33) These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
		John 17:1-8 These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the son may glorify thee: (2) even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that to all whom thou hast given him, he should give eternal life. (3) And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. (4) I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. (5) And now, Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. (6) I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. (7) Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: (8) for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send me.
		John 17:9-19 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine: (10) and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. (11) And I am no more in

the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. (12) While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. (13) But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. (14) I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. (15) I pray not that thou shouldst take them from the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil one. (16) They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. (17) Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. (18) As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world. (19) And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

John 17:20-26 Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; (21) that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that thou didst send me. (22) And the glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; (23) I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. (24) Father, I desire

			that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. (25) O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou didst send me; (26) and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

John 18:29-32 Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? (15) They therefore cried out, Away with him , away with him , crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.
			John 19:16 Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.
Matthew 27:31 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.	Mark 15:20 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
			John 19:17(A) They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself,
Matthew 27:32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to go with them , that he might bear his cross.	Mark 15:21 And they compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them , that he might bear his cross.	Luke 23:26 And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.
		Luke 23:27-31 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. (28) But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. (29) For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. (30) Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. (31) For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

		Luke 23:32 And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
Matthew 27:33 And they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a skull,	Mark 15:22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.	Luke 23:33(A) And when they came unto the place which is called The skull,	John 19:17(B) unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:
Matthew 27:34 they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink.	Mark 15:23 And they offered him wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.
	Mark 15:24(A) And they crucify him,
Matthew 27:35(A) And when they had crucified him,	Mark 15:25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.	Luke 23:33(B) there they crucified him,	John 19:18(A) where they crucified him,
Matthew 27:38 Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left.	Mark 15:27-28 And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. (28) And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was reckoned with transgressors.	Luke 23:33(C) and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left.	John 19:18(B) and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.
Matthew 27:37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.	Mark 15:26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.	Luke 23:38 And there was also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.	John 19:19-22 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. (20) This title therefore read many of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. (21) The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. (22) Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.
		Luke 23:34(A) And Jesus

		said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.
Matthew 27:35(B) they parted his garments among them, casting lots;	Mark 15:24(B) and part his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what each should take.	Luke 23:34(B) And parting his garments among them, they cast lots.	John 19:23-25(A) The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. (24) They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, And upon my vesture did they cast lots. 25(A) These things therefore the soldiers did.
Matthew 27:36 and they sat and watched him there.		Luke 23:35(A) And the people stood beholding.
			John 19:25(B)-27 But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. (26) When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! (27) Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home .
Matthew 27:39-43 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, (40) and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. (41) In like manner also the chief priests mocking him , with the scribes and elders, said, (42) He saved others; himself he cannot save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. (43) He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for	Mark 15:29-32 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, (30) save thyself, and come down from the cross. (31) In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. (32) Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.	Luke 23:35(B)-37 And the rulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen. (36) And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, offering him vinegar, (37) and saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself.

he said, I am the Son of God.
Matthew 27:44 And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.
		Luke 23:39-43 And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us. (40) But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? (41) And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. (42) And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom. (43) And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

Matthew 27:46-47 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (47) And some of them stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah.	Mark 15:34-35 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? 			John 19:28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst.

Matthew 27:49 And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him.	Mark 15:36(B) saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down.
Matthew 27:50 And Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit.	Mark 15:37 And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.	Luke 23:46 And Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up the ghost.	John 19:30(B) and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.
Matthew 27:51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;	Mark 15:38 And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom.	Luke 23:45(B) and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.
Matthew 27:54 Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.	Mark 15:39 And when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.	Luke 23:47 And when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.
		Luke 23:48 And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned smiting their breasts.
Matthew 27:55-56 And many women were there beholding from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: (56) among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.	Mark 15:40-41 And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; (41) who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem.	Luke 23:49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things.
			John 19:31-37 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. (32) The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that was crucified with him: (33) but when they came to

			Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: (34) howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water. (35) And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. (36) For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. (37) And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.
Matthew 27:57-58(A) And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: (58A) this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.	Mark 15:42-43 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, (43) there came Joseph of Arimathaea, a councillor of honorable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.	Luke 23:50-52 And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councillor, a good and righteous man (51) (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God: (52) this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.	John 19:38(A) And after these things Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus:
	Mark 15:44-45 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. (45) And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph.
Matthew 27:58(B)-60 Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, (60) and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.	Mark 15:46 And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.	Luke 23:53-54 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. (54) And it was the day of the Preparation, and the sabbath drew on.	John 19:38(B)-42 He came therefore, and took away his body. (39) And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. (40) So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. (41) Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. (42)

			There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.
Matthew 27:61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.	Mark 15:47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Josès beheld where he was laid.	Luke 23:55 And the women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid.
		Luke 23:56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. And on the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.
Matthew 27:62-66 Now on the morrow, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, (63) saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again. (64) Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. (65) Pilate said unto them, Ye have a guard: go, make it as sure as ye can. (66) So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.
	Mark 16:1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.
Matthew 28:1 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.	Mark 16:2 And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen.	Luke 24:1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.	John 20:1(A) Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb,
	Mark 16:3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?
Matthew 28:2-4 And

behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. (3) His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: (4) and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.
Matthew 27:52-53 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised; (53) and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many.
	Mark 16:4 and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great.	Luke 24:2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.	John 20:1(B) and seeth the stone taken away from the tomb.
Matthew 28:5-6 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. (6) He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.
	Mark 16:5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.	Luke 24:3-4 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. (4) And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel:
	Mark 16:6 And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him!	Luke 24:5-8 and as they were affrighted and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? (6) He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, (7) saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. (8) And they remembered his words,
Matthew 28:7 And go quickly, and tell his	Mark 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He

disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.	goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
Matthew 28:8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.	Mark 16:8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.
		Luke 24:9 and returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. (10) Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles.	John 20:2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him.
		Luke 24:11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them.
		Luke 24:12 But Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.	John 20:3-10 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. (4) And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; (5) and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. (6) Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, (7) and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. (8) Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. (9) For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. (10) So the disciples went away again unto their own home.
			John 20:11-13 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she stooped and

			looked into the tomb; (12) and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. (13) And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
	Mark 16:9 Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.		John 20:14-17 When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. (15) Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. (16) Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher. (17) Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.
	Mark 16:10 She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.		John 20:18 Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that he had said these things unto her.
	Matthew 28:9-10 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. (10) Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.
	Matthew 28:11-15 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to

pass. (12) And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, (13) saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. (14) And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. (15) So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth until this day.
	Mark 16:11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.
	Mark 16:12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.	Luke 24:13-16 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs from Jerusalem. (14) And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. (15) And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. (16) But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.
		Luke 24:17-27 And he said unto them, What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. (18) And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? (19) And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: (20) and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. (21) But we hoped that it was he who should redeem Israel. Yea and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. (22) Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb; (23) and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. (24) And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. (25) And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! (26) Behooved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? (27) And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

Luke 24:28-32 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further. (29) And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. (30) And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the bread and blessed; and breaking it he gave to them. (31) And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. (32) And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the scriptures?

	Mark 16:13 And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.	Luke 24:33-35 And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, (34) saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. (35) And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and how he was known of them in the breaking of the bread.
		Luke 24:36-43 And as they spake these things, he himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. (37) But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld a spirit. (38) And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do questionings arise in your heart? (39) See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having. (40) And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. (41) And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here anything to eat? (42) And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish. (43) And he took it, and ate before them.	John 20:19-20 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. (20) And when he had said this, he showed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord.
		Luke 24:44-46 And he said unto them, These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me. (45) Then opened he their mind, that they might understand the scriptures; (46) and he said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise

		again from the dead the third day;
		Luke 24:47-48 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. (48) Ye are witnesses of these things.
		Luke 24:49 And behold, I send forth the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high.
			John 20:21-23 Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. (22) And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit: (23) whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.
			John 20:24-25 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. (25) The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.
			John 20:26-29 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. (27) Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. (28) Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. (29) Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

John 21:1-14 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. (2)

There was together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. (3)

Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took nothing. (4)

But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: yet the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. (5)

Jesus therefore saith unto them,

Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. (6)

And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. (7)

That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. (8)

But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. (9)

So when they got out upon the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. (10)

Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken.

(11) Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent.

(12) Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. (13) Jesus cometh, and taketh the bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. (14) This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

John 21:15-24 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. (16) He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. (17) He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. (18) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. (19) Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. (20) Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and

			said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? (21) Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? (22) Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me. (23) This saying therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? (24) This is the disciple that beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.
Matthew 28:16-17 But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. (17) And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.	Mark 16:14 And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen.
Matthew 28:18-19 And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. (19) Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:	Mark 16:15-18 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. (16) He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. (17) And these signs shall accompany them that believe: in my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; (18) they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.
Matthew 28:20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Luke 24:50 And he led them out until they were over against Bethany: and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

	Mark 16:19-20 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. (20) And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.	Luke 24:51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven.
		Luke 24:52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:
		Luke 24:53 and were continually in the temple, blessing God.
			John 20:30-31 Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: (31) but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.
			John 21:25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.
